FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Milwaukee County.
2. The county agency reduced the petitioner's FoodShare allotment from $165 to $40 per month as of May 1, 2015.

3. The petitioner receives $1,016.00 per month in unearned income. He does not receive any other income.
4. The petitioner pays $450 a month for rent. His heating and electrical utilities are included in his rent. Petitioner pays for his telephone.

DISCUSSION

The size of a FoodShare allotment depends upon household size and net income. Net income is determined after subtracting from gross income those deductions—and only those deductions—found in 7 CFR § 273.9(d). The county agency reduced the petitioner's FoodShare allotment from $165 to $40 per month because recipients no longer receive the full standard utility allowance if their utilities are included in their rent, unless the person receives energy assistance. The Agriculture Act of 2014, Title IV, § 4006; 7 C.F.R. § 273.9(d)(6)(ii); 7 CFR § 273.9(d)(3), referring to 7 CFR § 271.2.

Those who pay their own heat get a $446 standard utility allowance as part of their shelter deduction. FoodShare Wisconsin Handbook. § 4.6.7; 7 C.F.R. § 273.9(d)(6)(ii); FoodShare Wisconsin Handbook, § 8.1.3. Wisconsin had been granting the utility allowance to those whose utilities were included in their rent by granting them a $1 annual energy assistance payment, but the current farm bill requires households whose heating costs are included in their rent to receive at least $20 a year in heating assistance to qualify for utility allowance. Most states that had provided $1 a month in energy assistance raised this amount $20, but Wisconsin did not.

Petitioner testified that he sometimes helps out his mother (from whom he rents) with the heating and electrical bills. He could not recall when he had last contributed financially in this regard. The respondent noted that the rent and utility information upon which the respondent relied when calculating petitioner's FS budget came directly from petitioner's mother. As such, any new information regarding petitioner's heating or electrical utility contributions would have to be applied prospectively. I have reviewed the agency's calculations and find no errors.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The petitioner is not entitled to the Heat Utility Standard Allowance because his heat and electricity are included in his rent.
2. The county agency correctly determined the petitioner's FoodShare allotment.

THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

The petitioner's appeal is dismissed.

REQUEST FOR A REHEARING

You may request a rehearing if you think this decision is based on a serious mistake in the facts or the law or if you have found new evidence that would change the decision. Your request must be received within 20 days after the date of this decision. Late requests cannot be granted.
